Figure 4-21. Capsulotomy, an opening made in the center of the cloudy capsule in order to restore clear vision (edges of opening at arrows). (Photo by Val Sanders, CRA, COT. Reprinted from Ledford JK, Sanders VN. The Slit Lamp Primer. Thorofare, NJ: SLACK Incorporated; 1998.)

Figure 4-22. Dislocation of the lens. The edge of the crystalline lens (arrow) is visible through the pupil. (Photo courtesy of Paula Parker, COMT. Reprinted from Hargis-Greenshields L, Sims L. Emergencies in Eyecare. Thorofare, NJ: SLACK Incorporated; 1999.)